

Key to Recognition

Call for participants

For the seminar 'Key to Recognition', 15th – 23rd February 2017 in Slettestrand, Denmark.

Together with our partners, we are looking for participants from Denmark, Romania, Turkey, Italy, Spain, Estonia, and Poland.

Summary

The training course is a 9-day seminar on creating new strategies and methods of making non-formal learning more recognizable, gathering 29 youth leaders from Denmark, Romania, Turkey, Italy, Spain, Estonia, and Poland. The seminar will take place on the 15th – 23rd February 2017, the 15th being arrival day and the 23rd being departure day.

The seminar will mainly focus on creating new strategies and methods of making non-formal learning more recognizable. Different stakeholders who will provide additional information to the youth workers about the situation of recognition of non-formal learning in their sector will be invited. The participants, together with the stakeholders will develop bespoke strategies that would enhance the recognition of non-formal learning. The stakeholders such as decision makers, educational institutions, labour market, parents and young people will be introduced to new strategies in the end of the project when a conference will be held.

The seminar will be conducted in English and translation will not be provided. Therefore, the participants are expected to have a good level of English, both written and spoken.

Participants profile

In order to participate, the candidates should be over 18 years old and must fulfil the following requirements:

- Be a youth leader, a peer leader or actively involved in the civil society;
- Have a good conduct in English;
- Be able to attend the entire training;
- Be committed to multiply the results of the training in the local communities.

Candidates who do not fulfil the above requirements will not be considered, and hence be taken off the list.
