

Another World is Possible – Youth Creative Activism through Urban Arts

Call for participants

For the training course ‘Another World is Possible - Youth Creative Activism through Urban Arts’, 14-23 October, 2017, Vadul lui Voda, Moldova.

Together with our partners, we are looking for participants from Denmark, the UK, Georgia, Moldova, Ukraine, Armenia, Romania, Portugal.

Summary

“Another World is Possible - Youth Creative Activism through Urban Arts” is an 8-day training course on promoting urban culture and art as a positive expression of young people’s participation. The training course will bring together 31 youth leaders from Denmark, the UK, Georgia, Moldova, Ukraine, Armenia, Romania, Portugal. Training course will take place between the 14 and 23 of October 2017, the 14th being arrival day and the 23th being departure day.

The objectives of the project are:

- To ensure youth workers have capacity to reflect upon and respond to the challenges and conflicts faced by young people with fewer opportunities in urban areas
- To give youth leaders capacity to engage young people with fewer opportunities in positive social action through Urban Arts
- To promote European cooperation in the field of youth work, specifically the participation of youth in urban areas.

The training course will be conducted in English and translation will not be provided. Therefore, the participants are expected to have a good level of English, both written and spoken.

Participants profile

In order to participate, the candidates should be at least 18 years old and must fulfil the following requirements:

- Youth workers who have, or intend to work with young marginalised people in their communities,
- Trainer, facilitator, volunteer coordinator, project manager, leader or volunteer in the home organization;
- Being committed to multiply the project results;
- Having a certain level of expertise in the youth work;
- Ability to communicate fluently in English;

Candidates who do not fulfil the above requirements will not be considered, and hence be taken off the list.

Application and selection procedure
